Ying Quartet October 24, 2011

The Ying Quartet occupies a position of unique Prominence in the classical music world, combining brilliantly communicative performances with a fearlessly imaginative view of chamber music in today's world. Now in its second decade as a quartet, the Quartet has established itself as an ensemble of the highest musical qualifications in its tours across the United States and abroad.

Gao Hong, Butterfly December 5, 2011

Gao Hong, a Chinese musical prodigy and master of the pear-shaped lute, the pipa, began her career as a professional musician at age 12. She graduated with honors from China's premier music school, the Central Conservatory of Music in Beijing, where she studied with the great pipa master Lin Shicheng. In both China and the U.S. Gao has received numerous top awards and honors, including First Prize in the Hebei Professional Young Music Performers Competition and an International Art Cup in Beijing.

HAHN-BIN January 22, 2012

A special protégé of the legendary Itzhak Perlman, the dynamic 23-year-old violin virtuoso HAHN-BIN embodies the renaissance of classical music, fusing his highly evocative repertoire with pop performance art in the "extraordinary, intelligent and beautiful" performances (The Washington Post) of his "inspired, innovative and bracing" programs (The New York Times). Born in Seoul, HAHN-BIN made his international debut at age twelve at the 42nd Grammy Awards performing in honor of Isaac Stern. Following a decade under the tutelage of Itzhak Perlman at The Juilliard School, HAHN-BIN made his critically-acclaimed debut.

Kinan Azmeh & Dinuk Wijeratne February 20, 2012

Hailed as a "virtuoso" by the New York Times and "Incredibly Rich sound" by the CBC, Kinan Azmeh is one of Syria's rising stars. His utterly distinctive sound across different musical genres is now fast gaining international recognition. Born in Damascus, Kinan was the first Arab to win the premier prize at the 1997 Nicolai Rubinstein International competition.

As one of the most eclectic talents of Canada's new generation, Sri Lankan-born Dinuk Wijeratne was recently praised by the CBC as an artist "internationally respected for his virtuosity and sensitivity as a musician." In redefining the sound of the piano he has been captivating audiences with his poetry and imagination.

Dawn Avery March 26, 2012

Rarely are performers as at home at Lincoln Center as they are in a sweat lodge. Mohawk composer, cellist, vocalist, educator and Grammy-nominated performer Dawn Avery is equally comfortable with either. She's sung and played with musical luminaries from Luciano Pavarotti to Sing, as well as R.C. Nakai, Shenandoah, Cale and Cage.
