NOTICE: IRS announces more flexible terms to help a greater number of struggling taxpayers make a fresh start

The Internal Revenue Service announced an expansion of its "Fresh Start" initiative by offering more flexible terms to its Offer in Compromise (OIC) program.

An offer-in-compromise (OIC) is an agreement between a taxpayer and the IRS that settles the taxpayer's tax liabilities for less than the full amount owed and in many cases more quickly than in the past. "It is part of our multiyear effort to help taxpayers who are struggling to make ends meet", said IRS commissioner Doug Shulman.

For anyone who has not filed their taxes, or has filed their taxes but have not paid, now might be the time to seriously look at this program.

In 25 years of tax work and as an enrolled agent, I have not witnessed a program this favorable to the taxpayer. I highly recommend you contact your tax professional, or call:
